9:00 AM President's Welcome

9:15 AM Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM)/Peer Support

Panelists: Oakland County Sheriff's Office – Captain Todd Hill, Deputy Bryan Pasini, Deputy Casey Crampton, and Deputy Robert Smith; Sterling Heights Police Department – Captain Colleen Hopper

The panel will be discussing what is CISM/Peer Support and the ways that it can be implemented in your organization, tools and resources for successful implementation as well as giving firsthand insight on how it has worked in critical incidents. They will explain what you can do for your first responder employees as well as those who are civilian employees. They will provide work/life solutions as well as support opportunities. There will be time for Q&A with the Panel during this session.

11:00 AM Impact of Stress

Macomb County Community Mental Health: Traci Smith, Chief Executive Officer; Dr. Agnes Ward, Chief Clinical Officer; and Anne Bicego, Clinical Administrator, CCBHC

Stress is something that we all live with not only in our work lives, but it also affects us personally. Our speakers will be discussing the impact of stress and how you can armor yourself with tools and resources to help recognize it in the workplace amongst employees as well as education on outliers that affect stress levels.
